File:ED Section 6, equation 6 6.1.1.png

A smoothed value of that over time becomes a labor wage impact variable in the model (LabWageImpact) and participation rates respond slowly to it (and therefore causally to unemployment rate). When such endogeneity is active, the equation above is replaced by that below

This page was last edited on 10 May 2023, at 16:46.