File:ED Section 6, equation 1 6.2.2.png

If everything at this point were simple, the model could move to a calculation of labor demand by multiplying the coefficients times value added (VADD) by sector and a scaling factor of 1,000 because value added is in billions and labor demand is in millions.

This page was last edited on 10 May 2023, at 18:36.